

Con Edison requires all meters to be installed outside unless unsafe or impractical. For reasons of accessibility, future leakage surveys, and alignment with guidance from the New York Public Service Commission, Con Edison is relocating meters of existing buildings to building exteriors and requiring new service meters to be installed at building exteriors.

Please be advised that refusing to allow a gas meter to be installed at building exteriors will result in a Con Edison customer's account being subject to a charge for costs related to survey/inspection of inside piping in accordance with tariff provisions.

The gas service Con Edison provides is subject to and incorporates the rules, regulations, and rate schedules for utility service on file with the New York State Public Service Commission, as amended from time to time. Customers with meters indoors are subject to the requirement to provide access for surveys/inspections and an inspection/survey charge of $179.31 for 1-3 family homes or $358.62 for 4 family and greater, which will be added to my monthly bill the month following such inspection/survey. Failure to complete the inspection will result in additional fines and possible termination of the gas service. Meter relocation will avoid these inspections and costs and the premise will still be eligible for the installation of a natural gas detector.
