

Commercial Claim for Perishable Merchandise

If you experienced a power outage that resulted from a failure in Con Edison's local distribution system that lasted for more than 12 hours within a 24-hour period:

- You may file a claim, up to a maximum of $11,460, for actual losses of perishable merchandise spoiled due to lack of refrigeration by completing this form in its entirety, and providing additional proof as required below.
- Reimbursement is subject to verification and is governed by Con Edison's electric rate schedule.
- Claims for perishable merchandise spoilage must include both (1) an itemized list as set forth below, with all fields completed, and (2) proof of actual loss. Proof of loss must include legible receipts that identify the date of purchase and specific spoiled items purchased.
- Claims must be filed within 30 days of the date of the power outage.
- Reimbursement is limited to actual spoilage of perishable unconsumed/sold/used merchandise.
- Losses for damage to motors, equipment, or appliances are not reimbursable under the electric rate schedule.

Claims for reimbursement for losses sustained as result of power outages caused by storms or other conditions beyond our control will not be paid.
